

5 Creative Scholarship Submissions

What is a creative scholarship submission?

A creative scholarship submission is an application or project that showcases a student's creativity. It is a way for students to demonstrate their unique skills and talents to stand out from other applicants.

When would a student use a creative scholarship submission?

A student would use a creative scholarship submission when applying for scholarships that specifically encourage or require creative expression as part of the application process. These scholarships are typically available for students pursuing artistic, creative, or innovative fields of study.

Visual Arts

If you have a passion for painting, drawing, photography, or other visual arts, consider submitting your artwork as part of your scholarship application.

Create a portfolio that demonstrates your artistic abilities, captures a meaningful message, or reflects an important social issue!

01

Creative Writing

Use the power of your words to create stories, poems, or essays for your scholarship submission. Let your imagination run wild and explore different genres or topics that resonate with you. Your writing can offer a unique perspective and showcase your literary capabilities!

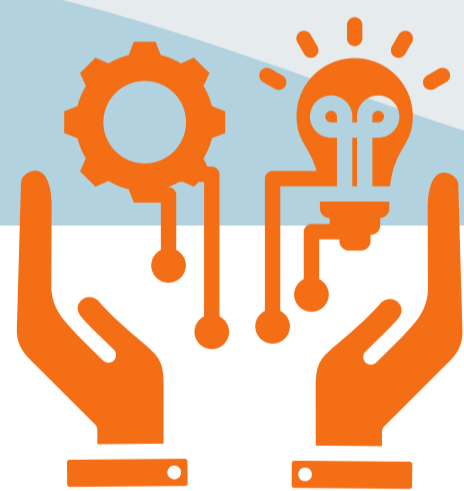

02

Video or Film Production

Create an interesting video or short film to express your ideas, tell a meaningful story, or shed light on important issues. You can create a documentary, a persuasive video, or even an animated piece. Focus on delivering a powerful message while showcasing your technical skills and storytelling abilities!

03

Innovative Technology

In today's digital age, innovative technology is highly valued. If you have an interest in coding, app development, or other tech-related skills, create a project as your scholarship submission. You can build an app, website, or an interactive software to show your abilities!

04

Performance Arts

Have a talent for music, dance, theatre, or other performing arts? Use your skills to prepare an exciting performance, whether it's a musical creation, dance routine, theatrical monologue or even a spoken word piece. Highlight your unique ability to tell a story through art!

05